EL MONTE, Calif. – The Mayor and members of the El Monte City Council are proud to announce the 2004 line-up for the Concerts in the Park. The Wednesday evening concerts held at TONY ARCEO PARK (corner of Tyler and Mildred) will feature "Rockin" bands, including the Armenta Brothers (June 30), The Answer to Classic Rock (July 7), Chico (July 14), Ready Freddy (July 21) and Tierra (July 2).

The public is encouraged to bring chairs and their dancing shoes, as plenty of dance flooring space is available in front of the newly painted band shell. Come early for best free parking and don't bother cooking dinner at home. There is plenty of food available for purchase at the park and in the many small food establishments in the neighborhood.

A special treat is planned for July 7, 2004 when the two El Monte Olympians - Kim Rhode, International Trap and Skeet; and Janet Dykman, Archery will be given a warm send-off and publicly recognized for their skills and roll modeling in the community. The Olympians will also be available to sign autographs and take photos during the show.

Those interested in additional information should contact the Community Services Department at (626) 580-2200.
