EL MONTE TO HOLD A JOB FAIR

EL MONTE, Calif. – The Mayor and Members of the El Monte City Council, along with the Human Resources Office for the City of El Monte, will be holding a JOB FAIR on Wednesday, November 5, 2003 at the Grace Black Auditorium in El Monte. This JOB FAIR will let the public know about the jobs available in the public sector in general, and in El Monte in particular. The public is invited, as there will be job openings along with applications given to schedule future interviews.

El Monte Human Resources Director Eric Berry said, “Now that the economy is recovering, smart employers are looking for highly qualified applicants for current and future job openings. We are excited to offer this service to the local community, and hope we can find great candidates for current openings.”

Participating in the Fair are both public and private employers, including: the Cities of Long Beach, Monrovia, Covina and Huntington Park, the El Monte City School District, the El Monte Chamber of Commerce, the US Armed Forces, the Los Angeles County Fire Department, Career Partners/EDD, Olympic Staffing, Office Team, Sam’s Club and (perhaps) Kmart. The El Monte Police Department will also put in a special appearance.

Parking is plentiful and free located behind the Auditorium. Specifics are as follows:

- 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- Wednesday, November 5, 2003
- Grace Black Auditorium
- 3130 Tyler, El Monte CA 91731

El Monte, a city incorporated in 1912 and home to more than 116,000 residents, is a full-service city located in the heart of the San Gabriel Valley. It is freeway-close to all of Los Angeles, bisected by Interstate 10 and abutting Interstate 605. El Monte is home to a mega auto mall and boasts the largest single car dealership in the world, Longo Toyota. El Monte can be visited on the web at www.ElMonteCA.gov ###
